PAMELA BABEY

Principal

Pamela Babey, with her signature fiery-red hair, boundless creative energy, and infectious laugh, is considered a visionary in the world of luxury interiors. Interior Design acknowledged her indelible legacy by adding Pamela to its Hall of Fame; she is also a member of Hospitality Design's Platinum Circle.

Pamela earned her architecture degree from U.C. Berkeley and built an impressive resume designing for SOM, James Stewart Polshek & Partners, and the Pfister Partnership. Since co-founding BAMO in 1991, Pamela has traveled the world designing luxurious hotels and residences.

Adept at marrying color and pattern in unexpected ways, Pamela is passionate about sourcing unique pieces made with care. Inspired by a rich community of artisans worldwide, Babey infuses each space with elegance, expression, and enjoyment. Her work has been featured in books, newspapers, and magazines including Luxury Hotels Europe, The New York Times Sunday Magazine, Town & Country, Robb Report, Objekt, Interiors, and Superyacht Design.

Pamela's portfolio includes Four Season Hotels in Milan and Bora Bora, The Grand Hotel a Villa Feltrinelli, a residential compound in Beijing, several homes on The Peak in Hong Kong, and a superyacht built by Benetti.

"CARTA BIANCA. A blank page. It's how I begin every project."
